Goldfish have a memory span of 3 seconds.

The next time you're in a bind, think about the fish.
For example, this screen contains information that people will have had seen before.

The advertisement is displayed on a wall in an airport terminal. It features a goldfish swimming in a tank. The text above the fish reads 'Goldfish have a memory span of 3 seconds.' Below this, in smaller text, it says 'The next time you're in a bind, think about the fish. For example, this screen contains information that people will have had seen before.' The SAS logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the ad.
